Chief Executive Officer
& Chief Medical Officer
RxLeaf.Co., Ltd.

Dr. Mara Bilibajkich, MD.

Dr. Mara Bilibajkich graduated from Queen's University in Ontario, Canada, and has been practicing family medicine for over 20 years. She is the founder of RxLeaf, a medical cannabis information website for patients, healthcare professionals, producers, and distributors to come together to learn, share, and engage in authentic conversation about cannabis medicine.

She has over 20 years of experience as a highly acclaimed physician and eventually began prescribing cannabis after witnessing its effectiveness in reducing the consumption of opioids and other medications.

Dr. Jenny Wilkins

DR. JENNY WILKINS, more commonly known as “Dr. Jenny,” is a naturopathic doctor and clinical research associate with an extensive background in nutritional and hormonal biochemistry. She is a successful entrepreneur, evidenced in her work as the CEO/Proprietor of AgeVital Pharmacies in Sarasota, Florida, and she’s a regular authoritative go-to source for national media, having appeared on ABC, NBC, TBN, CBS, the CW, and in an upcoming show on Lifetime. Any who have met her will confirm that her energy and charisma are formidable (and, to use a medical term, contagious), which no doubt has helped her in her work as a health and wellness expert and educator who lectures to medical professionals around the world. For years, she’s spoken at global conferences and in other forums as a top expert on the endocannabinoid system and functional integrative healthcare, on how natural solutions work to treat a multitude of disease and illness. She is currently authoring books about the endocannabinoid system for healthcare practitioners and consumers, and constantly working to refine and to update her ever-expanding body of knowledge.

The award-winning Dr. Jenny Wilkins is a naturopathic doctor, clinical research associate, and the founder and CEO of AgeVital Pharmacy in Sarasota, FL. Also board-certified, Wilkins earned her Doctorate in Naturopathic Medicine & Biomedical Sciences from Trinity School of Natural Health. She’s spent over two decades as a practitioner and educator, having made numerous appearances on television to discuss the latest in health and wellness.

MUANG THONG THANI

When combined, the exquisite event space is add up to 27,000 square meters, meaning each hall encompassing approximately 6,750 square meters of usable space. Sharing many similarities with Hall 5-8, Hall 9-12 is outfitted with loading docks, custom built utility pits, glass-paneled organizer rooms, built-in registration counters, and other supporting facilities. The 250-meter long sky bridge from ibis Bangkok IMPACT to exhibition halls is already in operation to improve wayfinding for adjacent ibis hotel guests and transit commuters.

Located next to Hall 9-12 is the Phoenix Function Room. Designed with contemporary Thai decor the ball-room provides an area of more than 1,100 square-meters. It can be divided into six meetings rooms with operable walls.
